“ I’m in shock to learn of Alpha Ann’s passing. My heart aches for her children and extended family because she was one of a kind lady. Despite disparities at a young age, she remained kind and compassionate when others might not have. I always knew she understood me even as a little girl and for her kindness and encouraging words there will never be enough “thank you’s”. God bless you and may you now be served by heavenly angels... for your work on earth is completed. Love you.

“ Just learning of Alphas passing. She was one of my favorite people from Seaman who never met a stranger. In high school, I looked forward to coming through the lunch line to crack a joke with who, at that time, I thought was the funniest lady God ever created! Some days, I would beat her to the punch with a joke or comment, but she somehow always managed to have a witty comeback remark! Gone are the days of my sweet friend bringing a giggle to my gut or a cheesy smirk to my face with a tear rolling from my eye. Although we haven't seen each other much in recent years, my feelings towards her have remained the same. May prayers of love, healing & comfort get all of her family & friends through this most difficult time of grief. Alpha will certainly be missed by all who knew her. RIP sweet friend. ❤️
