“ Melania I met you many many years ago when Drew was first diagnosed with cancer. I've prayed for him and your family many times throughout the years wondering how he's doing. Somehow your posts found me on facebook and I've been able to follow Drew's journey over the past couple years. What has struck me most is the unexplainable peace that you had so many years ago and Drew clearly had up until the end. Even though he and I never meet in person, Drew and your family has had such a significant impact on me and my walk with the Lord.

I can't imagine the grief you must be experiencing but I know you have the Lords comfort and the absolute hope and confidence that you will see Drew again.

I will continue to pray for your family and hope that one day our paths cross again. Many blessings to you and thanks for raising such an incredible son.

“ Brandon, Melana & Children,
I'm so sorry to learn of Drew's passing. I pray the good Lord will wrap his loving arms around all of you & give you peace & comfort knowing that Drew is safe at home with Him. He's no longer suffering, & there's no more pain & worry for him. I'm sure he'd want you to continue on, with his memory etched safely into your hearts forever. Drew knows he was loved & he loved you, too, but most importantly, he loved the Lord, & that is because of you. You have my sincerest condolences.

“ The strength and faith of your entire family and Drew's own strength to fight so many challenges over the years, with such grace, are a true inspiration. I know he is in God's arms and his suffering is over. May his legacy of love and kindness (and knowing the lives of all whom he touched) bring you all comfort and healing in the times ahead.

I want to say how blessed all of us who know your family are by your graceful dedication to our God. Drew certainly learned his love of God from you. I know Dee Ann from school at Peebles High. She expressed how she was blessed to be Drew's grandmother.
