“ Amy, boys & extended family: I'm so very saddened to hear of Bobby's passing. He fought this giant battle of his life for many years with Amy (God bless you as a partner for never leaving his side). I got to know him just a little during my daughter, Marissa's senior year of high school when she decided to join 4H & show a goat! Dudley, the goat (my goat), stayed in Phyllis & Eddie's barn where Tanner's (Bobby's pig) pig stayed. He helped me out some with his vast goat & overall farm knowledge, which somehow got me to know him! He definitely had a regemented pig schedule as I had no goat schedule. I found, though, he was a delight to be around. Bobby was a comedian of sorts, either nicknaming Tanner or just playing along with it, 'Pig Nuts'! From that point on, that's all I could ever call Tanner because I could never remember his real name! May the good Lord wrap his loving arms around all of you during this difficult time of grief & provide you with the comfort you need. RIP Bobby
