“ My deepest condolences to Shannon. Cynthia, and the rest of the family. Carey was so helpful to me when I was a young inexperienced supervisor at GTE in Georgetown. He always took time to give me advice and share his knowledge when I needed it. He was a really good man that I was fortunate to know.

“ Shannon, I am so sorry about the loss of your Daddy. I remember those great Sundays at Ma's when we were kids. Your Dad was a great addition to the family, I remember all the guys sittin under the old apple tree. And all the women on the back porch. so many years past. He was a good man, every one will remember him and his musical talent.
