“ I was stunned to read about Dave. My heart aches for his family and close friends. I had the true pleasure of serving with him in the 269th Combat Comm Squadron. We went on multiple deployments...always working hard and playing hard. He had this easy way about him, a huge heart...and a great smile, always cracking a joke and making us all laugh...sometimes we'd groan, because they could be a bit corny...but we always laughed! He had a way of seeing the good in people that is rare these days...and that's what I'll take with me...his smile and that ability to see the good. Prayers for all of us as we say 'see you soon' to one of the good ones. Say hello to the boss for me Dave ❤️ -Laura Harrison
