

Denver R Farley

June 19, 1928 - January 11, 2019

Denver R Farley, 90 years, of Peebles, Ohio, passed away on Friday, January 11, 2019, at the Adams County Regional Medical Center.

Denver was born in Hinton, West Virginia, on June 19, 1928, the son of the late Otho and Ethel (Williams) Farley. Denver served in the United States Army during the Korean War. After his military service, Denver was employed by AK Steel and worked as a steel worker. He was a member of the Armco Employees Independent Federation (AEIF) Union Local #1943, in Middletown, Ohio, as well as the National Rifle Association. Denver attended the Peebles Baptist Church.

Denver was preceded in death by his parents; his wife, Josie (Fox) Farley, who passed away on September 21, 2007; and by a daughter, Joanne Cowgill. He is survived by two sons, Denver (Ramona) Farley, Jr., of Peebles; and Rick (Paula) Farley, of Franklin, Ohio; and two daughters, Zora (Paul) Anders, and Rayetta Farley, both of Trenton, Ohio. Denver also leaves behind three brothers, Norman Farley, of West Virginia; Stanley Farley, of Ohio; and Wayne Farley, of North Carolina; and two sisters, Martha Bennett, of West Virginia; and Margaret Ryan, of Virginia. Denver's passing will be mourned by his fourteen grandchildren, his twenty-four great-grandchildren, and his two great-great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at 11:00 AM, Thursday, January 17, 2019, at the Peebles Baptist Church, in Peebles, Ohio. The ceremony will be officiated by Tony Kelly. Burial will follow at the Evergreen Cemetery. Military graveside services will be provided by the Adams County Honor Guard.

“ I was so sorry to hear about the passing of Uncle Ray. He was a very special uncle and we all loved him dearly. He and my dad were the best of friends. Dad always enjoyed his visits. We will miss him until we are all together again. I know he is so happy to be with Aunt Josie again. Love and prayers for all.
