“ I'm so sorry to hear of Edith's passing. I went to school with Dale and met Edith after they got married. I would stop in and talk to them when I had the opportunity. Know that your family is in my prayers. Delbert E McCann

“ Growing up staying on the grandmas farm on school breaks was always a treat. Waking up to cream of wheat and learning to cook papaws dinners in the kitchen is what inspired my love for cooking. You always made each grandkid feel individual and special in their own way. Each of us always loved watching reruns of murder, she wrote, bonanza, and Andy Griffith while you crocheted gifts for new babies in the family. Your dedication to your church and community was always admirable. And your love for family was deeply rooted in each of us. Thank you for all the love.

“ Aunt Reeny to me. I didn't see you often once we moved away, but you are always dear to me. I remember how much you loved words, how ornery you were, and that twinkle of up-to-no-good in your eye. You always had a smile for me and a “hey, sweetie.” I love you!
