“ I became friends with Edna after Dave and Don started working together at Heekin Can many years ago. We started getting together and going out for supper and the 4 of us became close friends. Every weekend we would go somewhere and eat and hoot and holler and have a good time. We even went on trips together and enjoyed each and every minute with each other. It was never a dull moment. Edna was a woman of few words, but when she spoke you listened. She was a sly one. She loved to tease Dave. He would die laughing as we all did when she would get him. Then there was Donnie. He was the apple of her eye. As big as that man is, he was always her little boy. And Don, her took such good care of her. He made sure she was safe and when she was in the nursing home, he would visit her twice a day. Always take her her favorite snacks. I will always love her and will truly miss her.

“ Edna was so much fun. I flew in for Uncle Bill's funeral. Blanche Ann and I noticed that Donny might have a boyfriend at the funeral dinner. We started teasing Donny about him because he didn't realize his friend was gay. We teased him mercilessly all night. Edna sat there and poked him as well and laughed so hard that she cried. I'd never seen her laugh that hard. She tried to hide it but she finally broke down and giggled so hard. I will miss Edna so much. She was such a good person. I will miss her corn too! I know she's in heaven but she's missed here so much.
