“ I'm so sorry for your loss. I'll never forget how funny, kind & generous Eddie was. He'd give someone the shirt off his back if they needed it. One particular memory I have of him (& we'd usually end up talking about it at some point when I'd see him), was when we were neighbors & he had fallen in the shower! Always remember your happy & fun times whenever you think of him, because he was always smiling & happy himself. He truly loved his family, especially his wife. I'm sure he'd want everyone to fondly remember him with a smile rather than a tear. Know that I'm here for all of you & I'll be praying for comfort & peace for you as you go thru this difficult time of grief. Love you always & RIP Eddie. 🙏❤️
