“ I always enjoyed spending time be it just talking or watching our "fake news" as Roy always said or canning or her big breakfast or us making the house a bit feminine with pretty flowers and colors no matter what we were together and that's a blessing I learned alot from momma the values of good foundation makes family stick together and she loved you all very much as she began getting sick she had said will you be here I replied yes till the end and I was blessed to have that time watching TV our jokes of getting tipsy on Winser just having fun and not looking at it as the end was near but living every moment to the fullest and I wanted to make her smile or laugh and remind her how much I loved her and thanked her everyday for being a part of my life she made sure to tell me she loved me each time I left room and I'd say more lol I will cherish every moment I had and how I miss her and her love of life. Thank you may you RIP I love you Rachel
