“ Dear Family, Your mother will surely be missed. I have many memories of your mom and family; 4-H, Adams County Fair, Methodist Church, Walkers & Talkers. Always enjoyed being around Emily and the conversations we shared. I will miss and have missed looking out my kitchen window and watching her walk down the street with her walking buddies and her sister Doris. I have two of Emily's paintings. One of the old fair barn which I bought and the other was a gift from my son, Robert. He commissioned Emily to paint the Old Presbyterian Church before it burned from pictures he had collected. Emily was talented and a lovely person. May you be blessed with love and peace from God.

“ So sorry to hear about your Moms’ passing. It was always an adventure living next to you guys in Yellow Springs, along with your scary dogs! Your Mom and I had many adventures and laughs. Also remember coming down to the farm when you all got leeches from swimming in the creek! Couldn’t believe it when your Mom told me she was taking a still life class and they had a naked model they had to draw! Also, all the fun we had at several of your weddings. Cindy and I so enjoyed having lunch with your Mom, Holly, and Doris in Yellow Springs and reminiscing about the “good ole days”. Your Mom was such a sweet lady! In these difficult days, remember the good times.

“ Over 25 years ago, my husband surprised me with a beautiful painting of potted geraniums done by Emily Bunn. The painting has always been displayed in our home, and I am grateful to have something that she created. I send all of her family my sincere sympathy. Elaine Lafferty
