Ethel (Raines) Baker, 85, of Blue Creek, Ohio, went peacefully home to our heavenly Father on Monday, April 20, 2020, at the Monarch Meadows Nursing & Rehabilitation Center, in Seaman, Ohio.

Ethel was born on January 1, 1935, in Seaman, Ohio, to the late Walker Raines and Belva (Owens) Raines of Seaman, Ohio. Ethel was a member of The Gospel Lighthouse Chapel, in Blue Creek, Ohio. Besides the factory, many may remember Ethel from Seller's Orchard in Marshall, OH. For over 45 years she worked beside her special friend Edward (Eddie) Sellers. There, she not only worked the orchard, she made many friends with customers. She was a friend to many with her wonderful smile, gift of listening and encouraging words. Ethel loved her family, fishing, gardening, her flowers, crochet and was a talented illustrator sketching many family portraits.
