“ I met Gerry way back in 1984. The man that I was going to Marry , Leland , worked for Gerry’s construction business. Leland took me to Gerry and Dianne’s house that summer for a cookout. They were such wonderful people and welcomed me with open arms. I knew them for many years and enjoyed being around them. And then they decided to move to Ohio years later. Gerry was a good man , and he loved his family with all his heart. I’m thinking of you, Diane and Jessica and Jason and sending you much love. He’s with so many people I’m sure that he’s loved over the years and I’m sure Leland was right there with his big smile on his face, and to give Gerry a big handshake, welcoming him into God’s kingdom. ❤️🙏🏻🙏🏻
