“ Sincere condolences on the passing of Jackie. I just found out and wanted to say what a kind and caring person she was.

My family lived next door to her parent's home in Monroe for 50 years. Our families grew up next to each other and they were wonderful neighbors.

Later in life, I would see Jackie and Sarah when they came to visit their mother Peg especially as our parents health declined with age.

Jackie always had such a love of the outdoors and especially animals. She had a real passion for horses and loved riding on their vast acres and wildlife.

Jackie had the biggest heart and would literally give you the shirt off of her back. She never turned away a request for help by anyone. You will be missed. I would have loved to see your welcome home from family, friends and pets as you were welcomed home in Heaven.

It was an honor to call you my friend. 🌸
