“ Jim and I have been friends since 1967, and thoroughly enjoyed his company in many adventures in those 53 years. I had the pleasure of being a business partner with him for almost 20 years, and appreciated his skill as a machinist, inventor and artist. While I know he was called home by our Heavenly Father and now at peace, my selfish side wishes that we had more adventures to pursue. He was an asset to every gathering of friends, and will be sorely missed.

“ Jimmy was an interesting guy, with great stories. He was a major contributor of time and talent to many Halloween events and Super Bowl parties. He could smoke a mean brisket! He will be truly missed by all who knew him. Go Jimmy, go Jimmy!

“ Jimmy was a good friend who will be dearly missed. We had a lot of fun and adventures together. He will be remembered by those who knew him. An introvert of sorts, Jimmy cared about people, loved the Lord, and was a great story teller. Our loss is heaven's gain.
