“ She was my kindergarten teacher many moons ago. She is the reason I loved school. She was kind, patient and a loving teacher. I can still remember the many things we did for arts and crafts. Free play time. Our little work papers. . May you enjoy your heavenly rewards.

“ My mom's family was from Mineral Springs and Dad's family had moved from Vandalism to Lawshe when he was in his teens. I was born in Dayton and moved to Peebles for my dad's transfer to DP&L in Manchester. I felt like I was in a time warp after living in Dayton 6 yrs. Even more so when I saw Mrs Gray so strange how as kids ,grown ups look so much older .I have to say I was scared of her but she was always super sweet to me it was a difficult move for me as I felt out of place coming late into 1st grade but she always confirmed me.God bless u Mrs. Gray.ur life was very important to a lot of children!

“ Mrs. Gray was my Kindergarten teacher and my Great Aunt and Uncle's neighbor.
She was a kind and patient lady who instilled the seeds of learning in many children. I'm so glad I was lucky enough to learn from her first. Heaven's gain will be deeply felt here on Earth. Fly high and Thank you

“ I only remember being around Aunt Jeanette a couple times years ago at family reunions and she was so nice. She was really my wife's Aunt and so they corresponded over the years especially at Christmas. After my wife's passing I still did some and sent her flowers a couple times. She always sent a nice thank you. She wrote beautifully. She will be missed.

“ She was the last sibling of my mother. Very talented. She could play piano by ear. Rest in peace, Aunt Jeanette.
