“ I met Jim at Baxla’s. Eventually he sold me a tractor, a zero turn and an assortment of other equipments. He was always a perfect gentleman. I always felt treated fairly in all our transactions. Even with his declining health, he always took a little time for small talk for a window shopping customer. His dedication to his employer and customers was very admirable. Lasting impression, Good man!

“ So sorry for your loss. Jim and Jason were so helpful in keeping the soccer fields mowed for many years. And always did it for free as a way of giving back to the community. Cant tell you how much I appreciated it. All of the Hupps have been so generous to the soccer program and have donated many hours of work to the program and to the community. That is just who they are. Jim will be greatly missed but he leaves a legacy of raising a great family.
