“ To the family, my heartfelt condolences for your loss. Please find comfort in the knowledge that God promises to end all suffering. Before long, God will wipe out every tear from our eyes, and "death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things (will) have passed away."(Rev. 21:1-5). May this promise from God give you comfort now and a real hope for the future. My deepest sympathy.

“ Any who knew Kandra, really knew Kandra will miss her more than words! She will be in our hearts till we meet again. I'm sure those closest to her will agree when I say, Their will definitely never ever be another Kandra!!! She loved not just with her heart but her entire being, even to those she knew didn't deserve it. She was the most giving and forgiving person I have ever or will ever meet. Kandra was someone you could count on in times of need, if you wanted to have fun, or just nothing at all but to sit and stare at the walls. Id love to sit and talk crap about Robbie and Willie again with her! Kandra was my Sister-in- Law, more importantly she was my friend!!!! She may have been taken to soon but will forever be loved and NEVER forgotten!!! Love and prayers be with you.
