“ I remember Lucinda from Upper Arlington High School. We graduated together. She was always kind and thoughtful of others. She got respect because she gave respect. I hope to see her again when I make it to Heaven.
Love to the entire family,
John M. Wheatley

“ I remember Lucinda we'll from our Upper Arlington graduating class. She was always very cheerful, well-dressed and she had a great head of dark and brilliantly shiny hair. It was always perfect. I join you all in your sorrow of having lost her to God. But He stills calls His best to become angels for us left behind. In your faith you will find strength. God bless, John M. Wheatley
