“ When I was younger one of the years that my Mom couldn't get me anything for Christmas Mary despite having 4 kids at that time of her own plus home and husband got me a beautiful pink large teddy bear so I would have something to open on Christmas morning. As long as I live I will never forget her kindness and every single one of her kids is just as kind and understanding as her which proves what a great person she was. It has been years but I will never forget Mary as long as I live.
