“ I am really going to miss my Uncle Mike. I always looked forward to visiting him, and did as much as I could. He helped me get through the death of my dad (his brother), and I will always be grateful that he was there for me. I don't think he ever realized how much he helped me get through that. He always had a way of putting a smile on everyone's face, and I hope that in some small way that I was able to do the same for him. The world lost a good man, but I take comfort knowing that he's now with his family who passed before him. Kiss my dad for me, and I will miss both of you tremendously! RIP Uncle Mike, all of your hard work here on Earth is done. Love, Donna
