“ Pam and Davy Jordan,
I'm so sorry to hear of Miss Osie Mae's passing. We had so had so many memories together at your home in West Union. She was a wonderful lady who passed. May she have found peace with JESUS CHRIST. I'm sorry I just learned of her passing. She was definitely a wonderful woman with hands full of raising all of your siblings. She will be sadly missed by all of you her children, all of us who hung out with you all. I'm thankful you had so many wonderful years with her. No one else was as good to put up with all of us girls, Pam, Denise, Sandy Goodwin, Barbie Goodwin, Jill and Janet, as well as myself. May GOD answer her prayers concerning all who knew her. God bless you Pam, Davy & Denise. We all enjoyed your Mom's life trying to figure out what we would all be into next. Pam take care of the all your families in faith, hope and love. She will be thought of highly as all our parents will be.
