“ I had the pleasure of knowing Regina though my wife Marcia, who was Regina's cousin. Regina was the type of person who was always willing to get the job done - whatever it was - and didn't sit back waiting for someone else to do it. There aren't many folks like that. A friendly, kind woman who I am glad to have met.

I've lost one of my bestest of friends. I can't believe she is gone. One of the most generous people in the world. My heart is broken, but I know I'll meet her again-soon!
