“ Dear Jones and Turner Families,
Keeping all of you in our prayers and thoughts at this time. Regina was a great conversationalist and was always able to impart some new knowledge as she conversed with us. She will be missed.
Sincerely,

“ I met Regina at the Georgetown Quilt club. She befriended my then-young grandson, Ben, who frequently accompanied me, and who also quilted. She said he reminded her of her son, David, which was touching to me. She gave him one of her painted rocks, which he still and always will, cherish. Alth we have not seen her this last year, we will miss her. She was a lovely lady. May she rest in peace.
