“ Got to spend a great time with Dick recently, we guessed it had been 28 years since we saw one another. I always looked up to Dick when I was a young boy. May God be with Jeanette and Families during this difficult time

“ Dickie was such a sweet man, I always enjoyed visiting with him and Jeanette. They came to his sister's on Sundays and I was a kid being there, played with there boys, always tried to pop in to hug him, even after all of us kids grew up. He will so be missed by so many. Hugs to Jeanette and family. Carolyn and Gary Arey

Dickie was a wonderful man and a great pleasure to visit. I always enjoyed kidding him when he drove the Township truck up a hill. I told him that any drivers stuck behind him would die if old age before they reached the top.

Dickie was gentle and generous. Mary and I will miss him greatly.
