“ Now he is on the front porch with his father in law just talking about anything that comes to mind! This is how I remember him! Grandpa, him and my dad out there on the front porch telling stories, and laughing about what they did has kids! He is now reunited with people who love and cherish him! Though he left this world with people who still love him and will miss him terribly, he will always be in our hearts until we are all reunited again! Fly high!
