“ I wish I could have spent more time with you then I did as an adult. I'm honestly going to miss you.....I miss grandma betsy as while (lol). I know im not blood but you never looked at me differently your loved just the same as your other grandchildren. Im so happy that you got to meet aj (one of your great grandchildren) and spent time with him lol you guys would laugh together and it melt my heart since my father (anthony) couldn't be apart of his life. I hope you have an amazing life with everyone you loved that you lost. I can't wait to tell all the great funny stories to my kids so they know how awesome you were as a loved one. I love you grandpa for everything you done for this family and sticking by us all.
