Bob and Mary were very dear friends of ours. We spent many weekends playing rook together. My late husband (Gary) spent many hours hunting together. My Prayers and thoughts go out to Rick, Tammie, Tim and family.

What Bob meant to me.. He was a friend and a gentlemen that I always looked up to. Many times that we spent together in the woods hunting became some of the most treasured memories throughout my life. Old friend may you rest in peace. May we be reunited someday on the streets of Gold. Your friend B.O.
