“ My aunt Ruthie was a lot like my dad, she was very honest and straight to the point like my dad her brother Gene, she even looked like my dad, but she had a fun side to her like no other my dad did as well! I will never forget the good times we had the last time I saw her was at the beach house that she, Debbie, Monica, Jeannie and Elizabeth were staying in that was quite a few years ago, but she was a very kind soul and a great aunt and will be sorely missed until we meet again. We all had a really good time!

I Love You aunt Ruthie!

“Ruth, she was a wonderful human being. We worked together for several years as Exec. Assistants at Cincinnati Bell. She was kind, good-natured and always so pleasant, nice, sincere and a person I have always looked up to for guidance and/or support. She was funny also, but in a very soft, quiet way. She always thought things through before she proceeded on whether it was a project or a simple task. She was one of a kind. She will be missed. Julie Brown Wallace.
