

Scott Dale Queen

February 27, 1961 - November 23, 2020

Scott Dale Queen, 59 years, of Winchester, Ohio, passed away on Monday, November 23, 2020, at the University of Cincinnati Medical Center, in Cincinnati, Ohio.

Scott was born in Georgetown, Ohio, on February 27, 1961, the son of Robin (Baxla) Elliott and the late Joe Thomas Queen. Scott worked as a farmer, as well as helping at Baxla Tractors. He attended the Winchester United Methodist Church, in Winchester, Ohio, and he was a member of the Scioto County Milk Producers Association.

Scott was preceded in death by his father. He is survived by his wife, Tammy (Swearingen) Queen, whom he married on May 20, 1989; a son, Michael (Ashley) Swearingen, of Paris, Kentucky; and two daughters, Beth (Jesse) Foister, of Maysville, Kentucky; and Mandy Anderson, of Columbus. He also leaves his mother, Robin (Phillip) Elliott, of Mt. Orab; and a sister, Amy Queen, of Peebles. Scott will be missed by his two grandsons, Harrison and Brendan. Funeral services will be held at 11:00 am, on Saturday, November 28, 2020, at the Lewis-Sullivan Funeral Home, in Seaman, with Tom Brown officiating. Burial will follow in the Winchester Cemetery. Friends and family may pay their respects from 5:00 pm until 8:00 pm, on Friday, November 27, at the Lewis-Sullivan Funeral Home.

“ Dear Queen Family,
Keeping you in our thoughts and prayers at this time. Lots of farming and sports conversations with Scott over the years in Ohio Valley Young Farmers and at kids' games. Also a fierce competitor on the Young Farmer basketball court! He will be missed.
Sincerely,
