“ God puts us in places where we need to be at the right time. Sometimes we wonder why and later realize his plan. I believe that is what he did this past late winter when Shelly and I reconnected at our granddaughter's basketball game. We had the best evening talking about our teenage years and up to our present life. Shelly was a good lady who will be missed by many family members and friends. I thank God for the time he gave us together this past winter. 🙏
