“ I remember when Jane was 15 or 16 in the summer time after all us kids came in from outside and gathered around the old black and white TV we would start chanting POP CORN JANEE, and she would quietly go to the kitchen and pop what seemed to be a bushel basket of hot popcorn. Then in the winter on a new snow, we would go out after dark and bring in a huge pan of fresh snow and who else but Janee would make snow-cream. Then when I turned 18 I was drafted to the war in the jungle of Viet Nam, I would always get a box sometimes small but mostly it was a good size box, Most time I couldn't make out who it came from until I opened it and found a box filled with home made cookies packed with POP-CORN to keep them fresh and unbroken, I knew exactly who sent them. Jane & Jerrie Barb's Mom. Those's cookie boxes and letters from Mom Jane & Jerrie got me home. Thanks Jane for your selfless heroic support and time sacrificed with 4 young boys by sharing a small part of your of it helping get home THANKS AGAIN YOU WILL ALWAYS BE WITH ME AS YOU WERE THEN
