“ I am so very sorry for your loss. Tiffany had a wonderful spirit and a love for life that I greatly admired. No matter how difficult things got she always tried to look on the bright side and had a ready smile that couldn't help but lift your mood. She always said she was blessed to have me for a friend but she really had it backwards because I was the one who was truly blessed to have her in my life. ”

“ I have known Tiffany for over 30 years and had the privilege to accompany her to many places that were special to her. Memories of Champagne on the Eurostar enroute to Paris and visiting castles and Royal palaces will remain and be a reminder of her. She was welcoming and generous and will be missed. Our thoughts are with you all at the difficult time. Hilary, Phil, Chris and Roger
