“ I have so many wonderful, fun memories of Uncle Judgie! He was always so kind. He would tell great stories and always seemed to have good memory of everyone!! The last time I visited with him in August when his health was failing, he told a great story of he and my Dad from years ago. We all laughed. He will be missed but what wonderful memories he left us all!

“ One of my 1st memories of my Uncle Vondon was visiting him at his work site. I wanted to operate the big crane he was operating. He always had a smile when we talked. These are the times we wish we could have gotten together more often. God Bless and watch over my Aunt and my Cousins. And a special healing for Timmy that only you can provide. In Jesus name, AMEN
