

William L Ivarson

July 2, 1940 - December 11, 2017

William L Ivarson, Jr., 77 years, of Seaman, passed away on Monday, December 11, 2017, while traveling.

William was born in Woburn, Massachusetts, on July 2, 1940, the son of the late William Ivarson, Sr., and Hazel Jenkins Ivarson. William was a truck driver and worked at the Keim Family Market as the delivery driver. He was a retired taxi-cab driver in Boston, Massachusetts.

In addition to his parents, William was preceded in death by a brother, Bruce Ivarson, and a sister, Linda Ivarson. He is survived by his three stepdaughters, Pamela Franklin, of Seaman; Kandi (Doug) Bushatz, of Hillsboro; and Lisa Doerfler, of West Union; and his stepson, Doug (Sherry) Doerfler, of Seaman. William is also survived by a brother, Robert Ivarson, of Lexington, Massachusetts; and a sister, Judith Skott, of Seaman, as well as many dear nieces and nephews, eight step-grandchildren and six step-great grandchildren. William will be mourned by his many friends, especially those in the Amish community and at the Keim Family Market.

The family is planning a memorial service to be held at a later date.

“ My condolences to Billy's family and friends. I and my late husband, Rich, enjoyed talking with Billy. We would be in the yard and Billy would stop and talk or wave as he went by our home. He will be missed.
